Open access agreements: equitable routes to publish and to read

Based on the current Open access source of truth (version 2, approved 1 October 2026).

- Institutional agreements make open access the default for eligible authors.
- Waivers and discounts mean that cost is not a barrier for researchers in lower-income countries.
- Licence and funder data reach your repository automatically, so reporting is simple.

Who to ask: Eleanor Shaw, Messaging Owner, A&G Content (fictional)